Techville News

Chinese Learning Partner Program

Techville Software Development Team is proud to announce that on October 16th Brookhaven College began a pilot program using Penpower Chinese Expert (PCE) software in an academic institution. This pilot period will last for 4 months and is free for Brookhaven College to participate in. PCE software and writing pad are in a foreign language computer lab for both students and teachers to use. We look forward to an exciting next few months as we work together with Brookhaven to verify that the PCE product continues to be a favored tool for Chinese learners.

We are also proud to announce our partnership with Evergreen Group. Evergreen and Techville successfully began the corporate PCE pilot program on November 4th. This Instructor-led partner program is scheduled to last for 2 months. Techville is providing a trainer to facilitate a weekly class of employees motivated to enhance their Chinese learning through using Penpower Chinese Expert!

UPDATE: PENPOWER CHINESE EXPERT

PCE Update:

Penpower Chinese Expert Software released its new 2.1 version on October 8. The new 2.1 version has enhanced controls that make it easier to record voice input. It also has updated TTS software. An easier format to share your user defined dictionary has also been included.

Chinese Learning Library Update:

We have finalized the bundle CD version of our Chinese Learning Library series. The bundle CD has varieties of quality articles from the Chinese Nursery Rhyme Series, Three Character Classic series, Numbers and Counting Series, Thousand Chinese Surnames Series, and Classic Idiom Series. All of these articles have upgraded translations and enhanced human voice features.

TIP OF THE MONTH

Inventory Management

Need help managing your documents or your inventory?

The Barcode scanner is one of the most useful and the most cost effective ways that you can do so. With a touch of a button, the barcode scanner will be able to easily detect your products or documents' serial numbers and input them in your database.

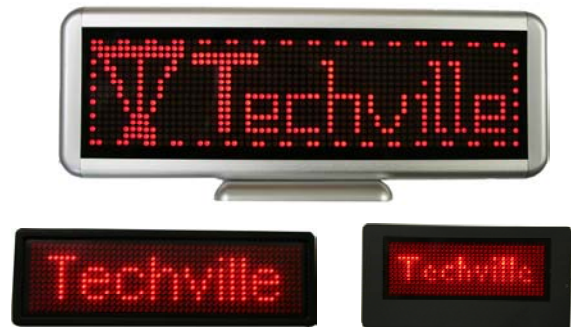

Tracking your documents or inventory can be very time consuming and fraught with errors, but with a barcode scanner, you will be able to improve your overall inventory or document management without all the hassle.

Techville offers the Bitatek USB laser barcode scanner for only $127.97, available at www.umax.com.
