TECHVILLE OFFERS SPECIAL DIGITAL ADVERTISING PACKAGE FOR SMALL BUSINESSES.

Techville is now offering a special digital advertising package for small businesses. This package is designed for small and medium sized businesses to display their advertisements in our DSA locations for a very low cost. We currently offer air time from 15 seconds which will run at more flexible schedules according to your preferences. We also offer art and designing services to help you put together a catchy and effective presentation which suits your needs. Local realtors, medical offices, local businesses, law practices or more can take on this great opportunity to display their basic promotion, business or contact information at Asia World Market and at our other DSA locations.

Digital Signage Advertising is one of the newest technologies that have been proven to work effectively in the field of marketing and advertising. Take on this opportunity to display your advertisements in the largest and the best Asian supermarket in the Dallas Area. Techville currently offers the complete package that is flexible, affordable, and will suit any of your marketing needs. We currently have different airtime packages, sizes, and we even offer the complete video/slideshow presentations making and content management for our clients to ensure the effectiveness of their advertisements.

7" DIGITAL PRODUCT DEMO SCREEN INSTALLED AT ASIA WORLD MARKET

Techville just recently installed a 7" mini digital sign/shelf POP marketing display at Asia World Market for special product displays. The mini digital signs are used to display advertisements, special promotions/product introductions to special products of the week/month. Currently, Dallas Calco is displaying advertisements for their products in the TOFU aisle of the supermarket and the overall feedback has been positive since the display is catchy and specific.
